

Since I registered for the New Jersey "Do not call" list, I receive no disturbing calls at all. Prior to signing up I used to receive a call almost every dinner time.
This is one of the few activities that government has not screwed up.

Now if New Jersey would take care of spam, I would be a happy man.